Among the strange treasures of popular art in Sweden are the paintings made a hundred years ago by peasant craftsmen in the central province of Dalarna. The naive art of these painters in the heart of Sweden flourished in geographical isolation. Today they inspire new generations of artists with their direct approach and simple lines.

The Kingdom of Sweden is one of the Scandinavian countries. It has rather more than 7 million inhabitants. The capital is Stockholm. Sweden's principal natural resources are iron, timber and water-power.

Did you know that Sweden's Parliament is built on 500-year-old tradition, that the safety match, dynamite, the ball-bearing, the automatic lighthouse, the separator, and the steamturbine are Swedish inventions, that the founder of the Nobel Prize, Alfred Nobel, was a Swede, that a seventh part of Sweden lies above the Arctic Circle
